B) READING COMPREHENSION ( 16 Marks )

Read the following passage, then answer the questions below:

The biggest danger for many animals is humans. Many animals in the world are in danger because some people kill them. People kill animals for their meat or their skin, others are killed because they eat crops which belong to farmers. Some animals, such as tigers, used to live in great numbers in countries like India. People have hunted them so much that there aren't many left alive.

Also, in South America many different birds and animals have lost their natural homes in the forests because thousands of trees have been cut down or burnt. People then use the land for farming or for building towns. It's important to save some animals because they became rare animals. So, we must keep them in natural reserves to protect them. All countries must work together to save those animals so that we can keep watching them.
